

Not A Cornfield invites you to participate in...

LA OFRENDA (THE OFFERING) HALLOWEEN TO DAY OF THE DEAD

October 26 – November 6, 2005

10/26 Wed 10am-1pm Workshop
Learn about Day of the Dead history and symbolism, plus how to make calavera masks, papel picado and sugar skulls.

10/27 Thu 10am-1pm Workshop
Learn about Day of the Dead history and symbolism, plus how to make calavera masks, papel picado and sugar skulls.

10/28 Fri 7:30pm "The Story of Corn" Salon
Friday Nights @ Not A Cornfield presents "The Story of Corn w/ author Betty Fussell." Rain or shine location: the yurt, on north end of project site.

10/29 Sat 9am-5pm Workshop
Learn about Day of the Dead history and symbolism, plus how to make calavera masks, papel picado and sugar skulls.

10/30 Sun 3-7pm Drum Circle + Harvest
Sundays @ Not A Cornfield, a working Sunday. Rain or shine.

10/31 Mon 4-8pm Halloween Night For Kids
Aliens Invade Not A Cornfield! All Kids Invited. Featuring electronica music by the group, "The Aliens."

11/2-5 Wed-Sat 6am-8pm La Ofrenda
View or participate in this community offering. If you wish, bring a photo of the deceased person whom you would like to honor, along with a few flowers or any small item.

11/6 Sun 10am Culmination Ceremony
The conclusion of La Ofrenda.

HANDICAPPED ACCESSIBLE
ALWAYS FREE TO THE PUBLIC
FREE PARKING

The project site is located between Chinatown, the LA River and Lincoln Heights on a large stretch of land north of downtown Los Angeles well known as "The Cornfield."

DIRECTIONS (NORTHGATE) - From the intersection of Spring and College (Gold Line - Chinatown stop) take Spring north 3 blocks to the entrance gate at the southern end of the project site co-located at 1799 Baker St. Look for signs / flags for parking.